

Corrections Today
2009 Editorial Calendar

FEBRUARY

Space Closing: November 30, 2008
Material Closing: December 14, 2008

Correctional Subcultures. This issue will focus on correctional subcultures, including gangs and security threat groups. Possible topics include: religion, ethnic background, sexual orientation, etc. Articles also could examine diversity programming that embraces these differences

APRIL

Space Closing: February 1, 2009
Materials Closing: February 15, 2009
POST- CONVENTION ISSUE

Professional Development. The development of staff in corrections is essential in retaining a qualified work force. Possible topics in this issue include: training and education, the aging work force, grooming new leaders, retention, and the changing expectations of today's work force.

JUNE

Space Closing: May 3, 2009
Materials Closing: May 17, 2009
PRE CONVENTION ISSUE

Best in the Business. Our 19th annual Best in the Business issue once again will recognize top correctional staff. This issue also will include subtheme articles on the "greening" of corrections.

AUGUST

Space Closing: June 1, 2009
Materials Closing: June 14, 2009
SUMMER CONVENTION ISSUE: BONUS DISTRIBUTION

Corrections Technology. Technology, which plays a major role in maintaining safe and secure facilities, is constantly changing. Corrections must adapt to and embrace these changes. In this issue, we will explore the use of the Internet and other technological developments, as well as their impact on corrections

OCTOBER

Space Closing: August 2, 2009
Material Closing: August 16, 2009
POST-CONVENTION ISSUE

Health Care. Correctional health care continues to be a major topic of discussion among those in corrections. This issue will explore various aspects of correctional health care.

DECEMBER

Space Closing: October 4, 2009
Material Closing: October 18, 2009
WINTER CONFERENCE ISSUE: BONUS DISTRIBUTION

Reentry. The issue of offender reentry and reintegration into society has become a primary concern for the corrections field. In this issue, we will look at the barriers to successful reentry, why this phase in the criminal justice system is so critical, and what those in different areas of corrections can do to make it work. This issue also will include subthemes articles on incarcerated fathers.